

These are just some of the things you can do on the Message Board

Attach photographs to messages

Preview Messages before posting

Delete/Modify message capability

- Users can Modify and Delete their own messages.

Add Smile graphics to messages

Votable Messages(create msgs that can be voted on)

- You can create "Votable" messages/issues within the board. This feature allows users to vote on issues and see immediate voting results.

Make Messages Private

- A user has the ability, when posting a message, to specify his/her message is to be viewed only by himself and the board manager or vice-versa. Two or more users can also create a private message situation where only they can view "private messages" among themselves.

Have a copy of your post automatically emailed to you

- Each user has the option, when posting a message, to request the board automatically email them a copy of the message they just posted.

Have copy of replies automatically emailed to you

- Each user has the option, when posting a message, to request the board automatically email them copies of replies to their messages.

Calendar

- A Calendar link is displayed near the top of the board. Users can use this link to post and view events to the board's calendar. Calendar events can be added so they are viewable by all board users, and/or are specific to a particular forum, or private and only viewable by a specific individual.

Have copy of posts automatically emailed to selected associates

Each user has the option, after posting a message, to request the board automatically email a copy of their message to email recipients they specify.
